Instructions for Law Enforcement*Enforcing the Restraining Order

This Order is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the Order, is shown a copy of the Order, or has verified its existence on the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS). Agencies are encouraged to enter violation messages into CARPOS. If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the Order and then must enforce it. Violations of this Order are subject to criminal penalties.

Start Date and End Date of Orders

The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, § 13710(b).)

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued, the orders must be enforced according to the following priorities: (See Pen. Code, § 136.2, Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h)(2), 6405(b).)

1. EPO: If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001) and is more restrictive than other restraining or protective orders, it has precedence in enforcement over all other orders.
2. No Contact Order: If there is no EPO, a no-contact order that is included in a restraining or protective order has precedence over any other restraining or protective order.
3. Criminal Order: If none of the orders includes a no contact order, a domestic violence protective order issued in a criminal case takes precedence in enforcement over any conflicting civil court order. Any nonconflicting terms of the civil restraining order remain in effect and enforceable.
4. Family, Juvenile, or Civil Order: If more than one family, juvenile, or other civil restraining or protective order has been issued, the one that was issued last must be enforced.

Attachment 7a(7)
Court's Ruling on Submitted Matter

The court finds by clear and convincing evidence that a permanent restraining order shall be issued restraining Mr. Crook not only from Mountain View Montessori Charter School but also their principal, Tanya Newell. Attached to this ruling are the orders which shall be served personally on Jasper Crook. Mr. Crook is ordered to turn in any firearms and he shall be prohibited from owning, possessing, purchasing, receiving guns or ammunition in conformity with Number #9 of this restraining order. Mr. Crook shall comply with this order within 48 hours of being served with this order. He shall stay 100 yards from Mountain View Montessori Charter School and 100 yards from Ms. Tanya Newell. This restraining order shall be effective for 3 years from the date of this order.

Mr. Crook, like all Americans, has his First Amendment Right to Freedom of Speech but when he uses a megaphone/bullhorn in front of the Montessori Elementary school to shout "We are coming to get you Tanya Newell...We are going to get you Tanya Newell...you are turning our kids into brainless Zombies...the Administration is coming for our children and we need to be ready to fight... and comparing the wearing of masks to Nazi Germany and Hitler... referring to the children as Nazi Youth and many other insightful comments, the court does not find that these comments are protected speech when made at an elementary school during pick up and drop of tiny children who are in fear of the man on the megaphone. The court cannot condone these types of threats, disruptive and frightful activity when it inflicts fear and harm to those children attending the Montessori School and causes physical and psychological harm to its Principal, Tanya Newell.
